Are you eager to quickly master key watercolor techniques? Have you wanted to improve your watercolor skills but frustrated with your slow progress over the years?

This unique workshop is carefully designed to cover all important watercolor techniques and design components in just 4 days, and help you to make a huge leap from where you are today.

Each day of the workshop, we will be focusing on ONE key area of techniques, then continue adding new techniques and design elements to progress into the next day. In just four days, you will be able to master all watercolor key techniques, confidently design and create your own master pieces!

This workshop is open to all skill levels!
